

Emergency Forage Assessment Form

****Help us Help your Farm Neighbors in Need of Forage this year****

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Delaware County is organizing a local forage exchange to help farmers who need more forage find stored and standing forage. If you have forage that you might be willing to sell as standing or stored crop, please fill out this form. We will make your information available to farms seeking forage. Please note that we will not be negotiating price or brokering the deals.
