

A Celebration of the Master Forest Owners Program

Tom Wessels, author of “Reading the Forested Landscape” will be the morning keynote speaker at the Fire Hall followed by an interpretive Woods Walk after lunch. 20 years of the MFO Program will be celebrated as we learn about our future by reading clues from the past. The Woods Forum initiative will also be highlighted by Extension Educator Ron Frisbee. Lunch will be provided. Check-in at 8:30 - 9:00 a.m. Please pre-register at 518 622 9820 Ext. 0. A $10 fee will help cover the cost of lunch. The first 25 paid registrations will receive a free copy of Forest Forensics: A Field Guide by Tom Wessels. Please send a check payable to Cornell Cooperative Extension to the Agroforestry Resource Center, 6055 Route 23, Acra, NY 12405.

Reading the Forested Landscape

November 10th (Saturday)

Delhi Fire Hall

5 Delview Terrace

Delhi, NY

9:00 a.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension
Columbia & Greene Counties

For more information on CCE of Columbia and Greene Counties and our programs, visit our website www.ccecolumbiagreene.org.

CCE provides equal program and employment opportunities.

This program is made possible with support from the Watershed Agricultural Council's Forestry Program.